Living in Melbourne

Melbourne is a vibrant city with many accommodation options for travelling nurses.

There are plenty of low cost backpacker hostels located in the heart of the city giving you access to Melbourne’s cafes and restaurants as well as trams, buses and trains that will take you anywhere you want to go.

If you’re travelling with a group, you may wish to lease an apartment and share the costs. Generally you will need to connect and pay for electricity costs in addition to your rent and provide a bond. The bond amount is usually equivalent to 1 months rent. Lease terms are usually 6-12 months however occasionally shorter term leases are able to be found.
